

Protect what you love.

Online estate planning documents and tools to protect your family, choices and assets.

You can't predict the future, but you can be prepared for it.

Everyone should have an estate plan – without one, a court may have to make important decisions for you. We have all seen how our lives can change in an instant, the pandemic has only served to heighten the need for an estate plan, documents like a Will, Health Care Proxy, Power of Attorney and more. Gentreo provides you with easy to use, top-of-the-line estate planning solutions that are affordable, and legally binding in all 50 states.

For only $8.50 a month, Gentreo makes it easy, fast and affordable to protect what you love.
